NUCLEAR WEAPONS ARE THE ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM.

(And a giant radioactive one at that.)

IGNORING NUCLEAR WEAPONS WON'T MAKE THEM GO AWAY. TELL OUR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES TO LEAD US AWAY FROM THE BIGGEST THREAT FACING THE U.S. AND THE WORLD.

Both Senator John McCain and Senator Barack Obama support the goal of a world free of nuclear weapons. Now we need them to turn words into action by introducing practical steps to achieve that goal. They must introduce a plan to take the world's nuclear weapons off of high alert, reduce the U.S. stockpile, and ensure a permanent end to the development and testing of nuclear weapons at home and abroad.

Now we need you to weigh in. Please call Sen. McCain and Sen. Obama to tell them to commit to reducing the nuclear threat in the world. Because nuclear elephants should never be ignored. To learn more, go to www.peaceeducationfund.org/elephantintheroom.
